IN MEMORY OF LEWIS JOSHUA

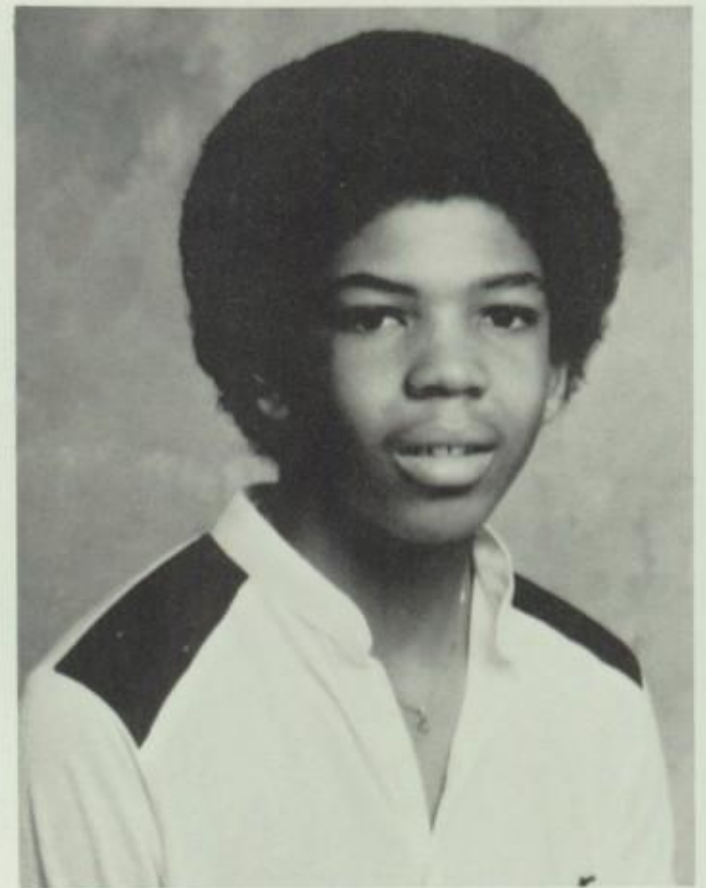

1963-1979

THEY WON'T GO WHEN I GO

Stevie Wonder, Yvonne Wright

No
more lying friends
wanting
tragic ends
Though
they do pretend
They
won't go when I
go
All
the bleeding hearts
With
sorrows to impart
Were
right here from the start And
They
won't go when I
And I'll go
where I've longed
to
go
so long
away
from tears
Gone
from painful cries
Away
from saddened eyes
Along
with him I'll bide
Cause
They
won't go when I
Big
men feeling small
Weak ones standing tall
I
will watch them fall
'Cause
They won't go when

And I'll go
where I've longed
to go
so long
away
from tears
Undean minds mislead the pure
The innocent will leave for sure
For them there is a resting place
People sinning just for fun
They will never see the sun
For they can never show their faces
There ain't no room for the hopeless sinner Who will take more than he will give He will give, he will give He ain't hardly!!! gonna give Oh Yeah...
greed of man will be Far away from me and My
soul will be free And
They
won't go when
go
Wa... Wa... Wa...
Since
my soul conceived
All
that I believe
The
kingdom I will see
'Cause
They
won't go when I
And I'll go
where I'll go
no one can keep me from my Destiny
They won't go When I go

Yes, this year Serra added something new to promote spirit, yell captains. These five young men are known as Mana - which means "Spiritual Powers" because the people in the stands claim to feel a power emitted from them as they perform. The five young men are all lettermen and seniors, with the exception of David Spence, junior. They are Keith Biggers, B.K.A. (Disco Biggs); Tal Jones (TJ); Victor Miller (Chic); and Anthony Bracy (LAM). Along with the yell captains there is a great pep-squad. They helped the cheerleaders to get the stands jumping at the games. If you have seen these two groups perform you already know that there's never a dull moment as a Serra game.

HOMECOMING

1. The cast is ready. Last year's queen, Dezerrette Nicholsan, Yarnisse Joshua, Oscar Solomon, Sheila Howard, Darryl Green, Cesily Thomas, Victor Miller, Stacy Adams, Tony Reantaso (hidden), Don Lombard, (M.C.) Toya Mack, Dwan Hurt, Tina Crenshaw, Kevin Pickett, Jill LaSassier and Nicke Merchant await the start of the halftime festivities. 2. Dashing Cavalier Roger Jules begins his performance. 3. Stacy Adams and Tony Reantaso. 9. Nicke Merchant and Jill LaSassier

Homecoming got off to a great start this year with the crowd cheering in the stands, bells ringing, posters flying high with pride and lettermen jacks parading around. The crowd grew restless waiting for the half-time festivities to take place. But there was a different aura back stage while the young ladies and their escorts got prepared for the main event. The escorts seemed to be more nervous than the girls. There was a big mess up from the tux company and escorts traded pants til they found a size to fit. Victor Miller didn't find his tie til the last five minutes before half time. Kevin Pickert never found his shoes so he was the only escort with black shoes. This year there were seven couples on the court. They were: Stacy Adams, and Tony Reantaso, Tina Crenshaw and Kevin Pickert, Toya Mack and Dwan Hurr, Cesily Thomas and Victor Miller, Jill LaSassier and Nicke Merchant, Yamisse Joshua and Oscar Soloman and Sheila Howard and Darryl Green. The lucky and beautiful queen, Jill LaSassier, gracefully received her crown from last year's queen, Dezorrotte Nicholson.

It started out with 110 people and over the course of a hot summer of weightlifting, running, endless practice, hard work, sweat and tears only 38 were left. These were the few who had to lead Serra to victory on the gridiron. And what they did.

The days were long and hard and, with the songs "ain't no stoppin' us now" and "we are family" ringing in the ears of the players, they fought on. Despite an opening loss to Inglewood, the Cavaliers went on to victory over tough Bishop Montgomery, Mary Star, Verbum Dei, Salesian, Murphy and a very hard fought homecoming victory over Cantwell. It all boiled down to the last game against St. Anthony's for League Championship. It was at Serra and the Cavs were undefeated at home. The game was hard and rough. But when the game was over the final score was Serra 14, St. Anthony 28. But Serra couldn't get down for the next week was the C.I.F. playoff.

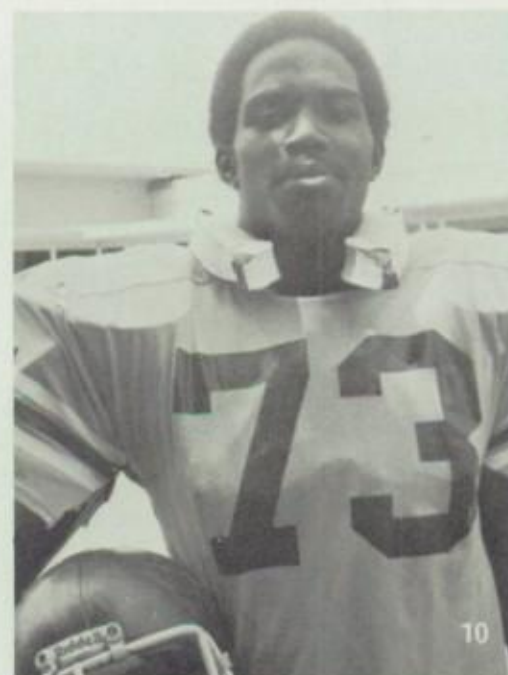

1. Tal Jones. 2. Harold Waldon. 3. Hurvie Milner. 4. Bryan Lofton. 5. Serra offense against Cantwell. 6. Serra gains short yardage in Homecoming victory over Cantwell.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

The first playoff game was against Shurr High School and the young Cavaliers were in for a game. At half the score was Serra 7, Shurr 21. Serra's only score came on an 85 yard kick off return by Tony Bracy. Serra seemed dead. But in the second half the team came to life with runs by Lofron, Biggers and Story and Waldon passes to Milner and Cormier. By the fourth quarter Serra had tied the score at 21 and now the game became a defensive battle. Key plays by Biggers, Harts, Milner and Harrison helped the Cavaliers hold on but with 2:21 left Shurr scored the winning touchdown. Still Serra could be proud. They went from last place to second and the C.I.F. playoffs in one year. But the team was best summed up by a player when he said "Coach Washburn was the father, Coaches Lyons and Aguirre were uncles and the 1979 Cavaliers were "The Family." As a result of the success the Cavaliers had ten first team all league players and five second team all leaguers to give a total of fifteen—more than any other team. Serra also broke another record when Keith Biggers made first team all C.I.F. and David Harrison made second.

"This was the first basketball team in Serra's history to make it to the second round." Coach Mike Chu, in his second year as headmentor, thus summed up the feeling of success his team had at the end of the season. With new assistant coach, George McDaniels, Coach Chu brought his team into a tough fight with number one ranked Inglewood and put a scare into the team which would eventually take the C.I.F. championship.

The team was young and several players had not played varsity before. The two starting guards were the only lettermen returning from last year's squad. These were Stan Walker and Tony Adams.

Other evidence of the level of performance of this year's team takes the form of post-season honors. Camino-Real all-league first team placements were Stan Walker and Kerry Boagni. Second team honors went to Glenn Smith, Tony Adams and Dwayne Biggers. Finally, Stan Walker was named to the All South Bay and All C.I.F. squads. Joe Cormier, junior forward, summed up the year this way. "What this team was trying to do was to form a family so that everybody would contribute his one-fifth when he was on the court. The only way to do that was to have faith in your teammates."

Excellence in academic pursuits was the stated goal at Serra from the beginning of the school year. Along with the traditional subjects such as art, math, English, Foreign Language, social studies, religion and speech, more inovative attempts also marked the year. There were speech contests, special English programs, plays, model U.N. conferences, library conferences, Black History programs and other events which brought spark to the school year. The academic council worked to bring about changes and improvements in the curriculum and to strengthen policies in general. One example of this was the adoption of a new "F" policy where students were required to make up any "F" before returning to Serra for the following year.
